GERMANY ACCUSED OF "SWINDLING"

Branded as an Undesirable Trader by W. H. Douglass.

Debate-His Speech Arraigning the Kaiser's Land Greeted with Cheers. Delegates Give Views.

Declaring the State Department should be allowed to wield the big stick over Germany without outside advice, William H. Douglass, of New York, branded the Kaiser's realm an undesirable trade acquaintance at the National Board Trade to abandon their threatening attitude toto abandon their threatening attitude to-greater length than can be accommodated at proper ward Germany, Mr. Douglass charged loading and discharging berths in our larger cities; that nation with "swindling" the United States out of many millions.

"If this resolution were passed it might easily be disastrous to the attempts of the government to adjust tariff matters," he said. The statements resulted in the warmest debate of the convention, but in every respect meet the requirements of the largest the resolution was finally banished to the ocean-going

The issue was brought to the attention of the convention late yesterday afternoon, with the offering of the following

Would Waive Question.

Resolved, That the National Board of Trade re spectfully but earnestly requests the department where States controlling the subject to waive the question of in- to be done, spection, so that the American beef products shall stand on the same basis as those of other countries, and thereby continue the present tariff agreements which place the imports of all merchandise from entire merchant traffic with Germany is progress jeapordized by the stand alleged to have been taken by the State Department.

pose maximum tariff rates, which would be disasterous to the trade of both coun- to the consideration of Congress about," said Mr. Douglass. "We had bet- debate, ter let well enough alone. We don't want to put this country is a position that would make them admit they are afraid of Germany, or any other coun- Prof. Armstrong, of Johns Hopkins,

"I hear that the United States government has been menaced by Germany. If this is so there should be the maximum Prof. E. C. Armstrong, of the philosophknown fact that Germany swindled the ical department of Johns Hopkins. when the government was weak enough to allow them to appraise their own imports. These appraisements were falsewholly false. Let us not say that we afraid of any country on the globe."

The speech was greeted with cheers

"This subject is a diplomatic one, and a twist and a flavor and sent to Germany, where it would defeat the ends of the State Department. There is an old adage that says 'Fools rush in where angels fear to tread.' That is the case here. I move that it be tabled."

"I believe we are wasting time," said Dr. W. P. Wilson, of Philadelphia. "I second the motion." Action on the reso lution was unanimously postponed. In Session All Day.

With the exception of a recess for retary and treasurer. luncheon, the convention was in continuous session during the entire day, from 9 o'clock in the morning.

President La Lanne was unanimousl chosen to succeed himself as head of the national trade body. Clinton White. of Boston, and W. H. Douglass, of New York, were elected first and second vice presidents, respectively. W. P. Tucker, of Philadelphia, was re-elected secretary-

Charles England, of Baltimore, brought in the report of the committee on interstate commerce, and the following reso lutions were adopted, according to its

Whereas there is a necessity for uniform classifica-tion of freight in the United States, and inasmuch as such a classification is feasible; therefore, be it Resolved, That the National Board of Trade is in favor of the compilation and adoption of such classi-fication, the same to be subject to the approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission, both in its adoption and in the changes therein, if any. Resolved, That Congress be respectfully urged to

AUTOMOBILE DEALERS.

Well Located Garage For Sale,

$40,000

Rental, $3,300

Per Annum.

Aloan of $20,000 at 5%.

This property has been used successfully as a garage for five years, and is located on ## one of the principal business streets in the northwest which is a great thoroughfare. The # lot is 50x150—alley.

Reasonable terms of payments can be arranged.

MOORE & HILL, Inc., 1333 G St. N. W.

so amend the interstate commerce law as to permit railroads engaged in interstate traffic to after the making of agreements under the supervision and control of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Resolved, That the National Board of Trade recommends the enactment by Congress of amendments to the interstate commerce act, giving the shipper the right to route the freight; also requiring the carriers upon application to mote rates in writing. arriers upon application to quote rates in writing nd, upon request, to insert rates in bills of lading ad be responsible therefor.

Increased Salaries Favored. In a resolution offered by G. Waldo mith, of New York, and seconded by Representative Goulder, of the same State, the Board of Trade went on record in favor of increased salaries for United follows: Resolved, That in the opinion of the Nationa Resolution Offered at National Board of Trade the salaries paid at the present time to judges of the Federal courts are wholly in-adequate to the service which they render to the community and make it difficult for men without independent fortune to accept such offices without great personal sacrifice.

Resolved, That it is the sense of the National Board of Trade that the salary of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States should be $18,000, an dthat of the Associate Justices $17,500;

Placing themselves on record in favor f waterways conservation on a big scale, the convention adopted the follow- teenth street, ing resolutions:

quaintance at the National Board Trade Convention yesterday.

In a heated address opposing a resolution which asked the State Department to shandon their threatening attitude to the ports of the United States by offering every possible advantage and accommodation; and Whereas, steamships are now being constructed of

Whereas, the control of our harbors and rivers is of the Mark vested in the United States government; therefore the evening. Resolved, That the National Board of Trade ear estly urges the board of engineers having charge of this department to approve the extension of the present piers and the building of new ones that will

For National Progress.

Resolved. That the improvement of the national Resolved, That the improvement of the national waterways (coastwise as well as interior) is necessary to proper national progress. It should be continued with increasing appropriations proportional to growth of wealth and numbers of population, Resolved, That appropriations should be continuous and that wise policy requires that preference in application of national funds should be given where States or municipalities will aid in the work to be done.

Whereas, the maximum development of American manufactures and commerce requires the utilization of the most economic and efficient means of freight welding Ring, of New York, moved the passage of the resolution, declaring the country of the passage of the resolution, declaring the country of the passage of the resolution, declaring the country of the passage of the resolution of the passage of the resolution, declaring the country of the passage of the resolution, declaring the country of the passage of the resolution of the passage of the resolution, declaring the country of the passage of the resolution of the passage of the resoluti Resolved, That the National Board of Trade urges progressive, continuous, and permanent work being done upon such projects as may be deemed necessar, for the proper development of the transportation in

"Unless action is taken before the trade treaty expires on February 7," he said, "Germany and the United States will impose maximum tariff rates, which would tries. I understand the Department of Frank P. May, of Washington, moved State is holding out for the minimum the adoption of a resolution advocating a rate for American beef on the hoof as a reciprocity treaty with Canada, and an German import-or the maximum tariff amendment was offered providing for the establishment of a permanent tariff commission tending to take the regulation of the government alone, and let them deal import and export taxes out of politics. with an affair that we know nothing Both isues were tabled after a heated ALUMNI HOLD SMOKER.

Makes Address of Evening. Alumni of Johns Hopkins University held a smoker last night at the University Club. The speaker of the evening was government out of hundreds of millions the standard of teachers in schools of Lieut. Gen. S. B. M. Young, retired, and studies. Prof Armstrong aminations. He claimed that a class of Justice and Mrs. Lurton, Mr. Justice and students better trained for university work Mrs. Holmes, the British Ambassador and could be obtained by other methods. He also said the universities must look to schools and colleges for co-operation, and from every part of the hall, and several that the demands of universities must be the Austrian Ambassador and Baroness delegates jumped to their feet seeking reflected in the standard of the schools. Dr. J. W. Williams, of Johns Hopkins, therefore secret and private," said Joseph the advantages of its proposed site, Dr. spoke about the new home, explaining Cook, of Philadelphia. "If this resolu- David T. Day told of the Johns Hopkins tion were passed, it might easily be given students in the employ of the government saying no other university is so well rep

"Accuracy in the matter of details," was the subject of an address by Dr. E. P. Magruder, of the Emergency Hospital. Prof Mitchell Carroll, James Lee Rost B. F. Ramage, and W. F. Willoughby also made short addresses. Officers elected for the year were Charles P. Neil, president; Prof. Mitchell Carrol vice president, and James Lee Bost, sec

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Weather Bureau, Washington, Wednesday, Jan. 25, 1910—8 p. m.
The weather over the country east of the Rocky dountains and in the Western Plateau region will be generally fair Thursday and Friday, except that on Thursday there will be snow in the Lake region and local rains, followed by clearing in the North Markin States.

The temperature will rise Thursday in New Eng The temperature will rise Thursday in New Eng-ind and the Middle Atlantic States, and it will fall the Ohio and Middle Mississippi valleys, the Lake gion, Tennessee, and the Gulf States. In all other istricts the temperature changes will be unimport-it during the next forty-eight hours. The winds along the New England coast will be oderate to brisk south and southwest; on the midoderate to brisk south and southwest; on the mid-e Atlantic coast, moderate to brisk southwest and west; on the south Atlantic coast, moderate soft-west and west; on the Gulf coast, moderate south-west and west; on the Gulf coast, light, variable; on Lake Michigan, brisk, westerly. Steamers departing Thursday for European ports will have moderate to brisk southwest and west vinds, with generally fair weather to the Grand

Local Temperature.

Relative bumidity, 8 a. m., 79; 2 p. m., 56; 8 p. m., Rainfall (8 p. m. to 8 p. m.), trace; hours of sun-Temperature same date last year-Maximum, 48;

> Temperatures in Other Cities. Compensatures in other cities, together with the count of rainfall, for the twelve hours ended at 8

	Max.	Min.	8 p. m.	ial
Asheville, N. C	56	30	50
Atlanta, Ga	60	40	58
Atlantic City, N. J	36	24	36	T
Bismarck, N. Dak		26	26
Boston, Mass	- 41	34	38	***
Buffalo, N. Y	42	20	40	0.5
Cincinnati, Ohio		34	48	T
Cheyenne, Wyo	34	20	26
Davesport, Iowa	40	32	. 22	0.0
Denver, Colo	46	32	36
Des Moines, Iowa	38	36	36	T
Galveston, Tex	79	69	61
Helena, Mont	34	24	30	2.00
Indianapolis, Ind		32	40	T
Jacksonville, Fla	66.	38	56
Kansas City, Mo	. 52	42	42
Little Rock, Ark		56	56
Marquette, Mich	. 30	24	30	0.0
Memphis, Tenn	61	56	58	***
New Orleans, La	. 74	52	- 66	**
New York, N. Y	. 36	24	34
North Platte, Nebr	42	32	32
Omaha, Nebr	. 38	32	36	***
Pittsburg, Pa	48	28	48	**
Salt Lake City, Utah	34	24	28	0.0
St. Louis, Mo	56	46	48	***
St. Paul, Minn	28	25	28	0.3
Springfield, Ill	46	38	40	44

Tide Table. To-day—High tide, 9:40 a. m. and 9:55 p. m. Low tide, 3:48 a. m. and 4:62 p. m.

To-merrow—High tide 19:23 a. m. and 10:40 p. m.
Low tide, 4:33 a. m. and 4:49 p. m.

Condition of the Water. Special to The Washington Herald. Harpers Ferry, W. Va., Jan. 28.—Both rivers we Piles Cured in 6 to 14 Days, Pazo Ointment is guaranteed to any case of Itching, Blind, Bleed Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or refunded. 50c.

Notable Assemblage Present the former the new Commissioner of the at Brilliant Reception.

SOCIETY IS ENTERTAINED

UPHOLDS STATE DEPARTMENT States judges. The resolution adopted Mrs. Sherman Wears Superb Gown of White Satin-President Arrives Late in Evening-House Decorated with Rare Hot-house Blossoms. Thousands of Invitations Issued.

> Vice President and Mrs. Sherman held a large and brilliant reception last night that the salaries of the justices of the Circuit Court should be raised to $10,000 per annum, and the salaries of the judges of the United States District Court should be raised to $9,000 per annum.
>
> and the salaries of the Senate, when members of the Cabinet and their families and a large court should be raised to $9,000 per annum. assemblage of official society were entertained in their handsome home in Six-

Assisting in the hospitalities were the three sons of the hosts and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Sherrill Sherman, and Mr. and Mrs. of the Marine Band played throughout as long as you produce that most exneavy white satin, brocaded richly, with never suffer." trimmings of pearl embroidery and pearl fringe, a large sunburst of diamonds, and and visiting society.

President in Happy Mood. The President arrived about 11 o'clock, ccompanied by his aid, Capt. Archibald W. Butt. He was in his happlest mood, quaintance with him. He remained some time in the drawing-room, chatting with the Vice President and some of the distalk and a laugh with old friends. The crowd was considerably thinned out when tour of the drawing-rooms, but it was a charming and interesting visit he paid.

The gowns of the women have seldom een surpassed for beauty, including the ewels worn with them. Many dinner comsummer. A buffet supper was served in learning more about them." the dining-room, and punch for those who preferred it, and lemonade for the Many Invitations Issued. It was said that 3,000 invitations had been sent, and it is not on record that any one declined or remained away. Among them were the Secretary of War and Mrs. Dickinson, the Secretary of the nterior and Mrs. Ballinger, the Attorney General and Mrs. Wickersham, Postmaster General Hitchcock, Secretary Wilson, He spoke on entrance examinations and Lieut. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, retired; Mrs. Young Mr Justice and Mrs. Haradvocated abolishment of entrance ex-lan, Mr. Justice and Mrs. Brewer, Mr. bassador and Countess von Bernstorff, Hengelmuller, the Japanese Ambassador and Baroness Uchida, the Counselor of the Japanese Embassy and Mrs. Matsul. the new Chinese Minister, Mr. Chang the Argentine Minister and Mme. Portela, the Danish Minister and Countess von Moltke, the Netherlands Minister and Mme. Loudon, the Costa Rican Minister and Mme. Calvo, and Miss Calvo; the Venezuelan Minister, Gen. Rojas, and the harge d'affaires of Turkey, Mr. A. Rus-

Secretary Meyer, the United States he Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. Huntington Wilson, the Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Beekman Winthrop, the former Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. O'Laughlin, Dr. Harvey Wiley, Mrs. Russell Harrison, Miss Marthena Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Thorpp, Senator and Mrs. De pew, Senator and Mrs. Newland, Senato and Mrs. Curtis, Miss Curtis, Dr. and Mrs. Walter S. Harban, Mr. and Mrs. week. Meany, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and Miss Cannon and their house guest, Mrs. J. L. Loose, of Kansas City; Representative and Mrs. Dwight, and Mr. and Mrs. Perry S.

Representative and Mrs. Crumpacker, Representative and Miss Diekema, the Sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, Maj. D. M. Ransdell; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Butler, Capt. and Mrs. W. S. Boutwell, of Norfolk; Senator and Mrs. Carter, Senator and Mrs. Shively, Representative and Mrs. Korbly, Mr. and Mrs. Willis J. Abbott, Gen. and Mrs. Wotherspoon, Gen. and Mrs. W. L. Marshall, Senator and Mrs. Smoot, Miss Smoot, Mr. and Mrs. Britton and Miss Britton, Mr. and Mrs. Fearn and Miss Mildred Fearn, Miss Katherine Britton, Mrs. McCartney, Mrs. Irwin, Miss Irwin, former Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Newberry, Miss Newberry, Mrs. Phillips and Miss Martha Phillips, Judge and Mrs. Thomas H. 'Anderson, Senator and Mrs. Burrows, Senator and Mrs. William Alden Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth, Mrs. Norman Williams, Representative and Mrs. Lowden, Mrs. Pullman, Mrs. Graeme Stewart and Miss Stewart, Senator and

Senator and Mrs. Crane, Senator Burton, Senator Warren, Miss Boardman, Miss Isabel Hagner, Mrs. Leiter, Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, Representative and and Mrs. Foster, Judge Hagner, Senator and Mrs. Elkins, Senator and Mrs. Scott, Mr. Alonzo H. Stewart, Miss Daisy Gordon Stewart and their house guest, Miss Thiery, Mrs. Robert J. Wynne, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Woods, Mr. John Barrett, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Mason, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Cowles, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Wainwright, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Hemphill, Commander and Mrs. Barroll, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Leutze, Capt. and Mrs. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Herndon Morsell, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore J.

Sweet Catawba

Made in New York State from the choicest Catawba grapes. Special for to-day and to-morrow only, 5 bottles, $1. 'Phone or write.

TO-KALON WINE CO., 614 14th St. N. W. 'Phone M. 998. Pickett, Judge and Mrs. Tracewell, Sena-Vechten Olcott, Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Roosevelt, Miss Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs. Westinghouse, Gen. and Mrs. Johnston,

TAFT WOULD PAY DIPLOMATS WELL

Continued from Page One.

District of Columbia.

a toast to Queen Wilhelmina, calling he 'that dearest of ladies." "I have noticed that when the name of my queen is spoken among you, said the Minister, when arose to respond 'that she is cherished as much here as in mine own land. And it is with deep feeling that I thank you for this really genuine expression of good feeling for my country.

"Now we diplomats follow your trade laws closely, especially since we are still under the spell of that midsummer dream-the tariff reform. But to us it was not very cruel." The Minister spoke of the excellent and the Netherlands, adding: "One of our dearest imports is dia-Richard Updyks Sherman, a bride and duty on diamonds 25 per cent it would bridegroom of a few months. A section not have made much difference, because

Mrs. Sherman wore a superb gown of woman-our diamond trade with you can Compliments Americans

The Mexican Ambassador paid half a a pearl and diamond ornament holding a dozen gracefully, flowery compliments to white aigrette in her hair. The guests America and Americans, but he declared numbered several thousand of prominent the people of this country lack knowledge official, judicial, diplomatic, residential, of his people. He predicted a closer relation and a better understanding in the future. President La Lanne called upon John Barrett for the next toast, and then the director of the Bureau of American Re as every guest enjoyed a personal ac- publics arose, he returned the tributes of the head of the trade board with interest, "If I could make love," he said, "with the eloquence with which our toastmaster speaks I would have a harem so large that I would not know what to do with a machinist," said President Johnston,

Director Barrett spoke of the sister republics of South America and their He turns out more and better work than the Chief Executive made his little de- wealth, saying, among other things, that can be done in any government or private the City of Mexico spends each year machine shop plant in the country. $10,000 more than Washington on public improvements. a girl who spent her time flirting with panies went there, which was one cause every one else and left her own brothers for the large crowd toward the late hour. alone neglected? Now, we have flirted stuffs. We cannot live on the wages paid The house was decorated with rare hot- with Germany and dear, winsome Holhouse blossoms, and with flowers sent land, Great Britain and dainty France, for the occasion by admiring friends in but we have neglected our American

Guests at Banquet. Hon, William H. Taft, President; Hon. Alvey A. Adee, Assistant Secretary of State; Hon. John Barrett, director. International Bureau of the American Republics; Hon. Jokheer J. Loudoun, Netherlands Republics; Hon, Jokheer J. Loudoun, Netherlands Minister; Senor Don Francisco Leon de la Barra, Mexican Ambassador; Senor Don Antbal Cruz, Minister from Chile; Senor Don Joaquin Bernardo Calvo, Costa Rican Minister; Senor Don Dr. Luis Toledo Herrarte, Guatemalan Minister; Senor Don P. Ezequiel Rojas, Venezuelan Minister; Hon, C. C. Arosemena, Panama Minister; Gen. Carlos Garcia Velez, Minister from Cuba; Dr. W. J. McGee, chief of Bureau of Soils; Hon, H. A. Du Pont, Luited States Senator: Hon, Georgea T. Oliver, Luited States Senator: Hong, Georgea T. Oliver, Lui President; Mr. Edgar C. Snyder, Mr. Henry C. Clement, Capt. A. W. Butt. U. S. A.; Wilber J. Christs' art. Carr, director of the consular service; H. T. Newcomb, and O. P. Austin, chief of Bureau of

CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS.

Members of Congressional Delegation Attend Smoker. street northwest. The following were chosen; Col. W. R. Andrews, president; Hon. J. Hampton Moore, first vice presi-Minister to China and Mrs. W. J. Caldent: Hon. George F. Huff, second vice houn, Gen, and Mrs. John W. Foster, president: W. B. Stewart treasurer: J. H. president; W. B. Stewart, treasurer; J. H. W. Thrush, secretary; William B. Cragg, financial secretary; Hon. H. K. Daugherty, T. Lincoln Townsend, S. A. Dougherty, board of governors. After the election a smoker was given nembers of the Congressional delegation is there anything in the idea of ental telepathy? "The Harvest Moon" will convince you. National Theater next

We have just received a

tor and Mrs. Nelson, Senator and Mrs. Gore, Representative and Mrs. Van PEARRE'S MEASURE

Lawfor Increased Wage Scale Favored by Union.

CLAIM THEY ARE UNDERPAID

President Johnston, of International Association of Machinists, Declares Employes of Navy Yard and Gun Factory Receive Less Conpensation Than Men of Less Ability.

Columbia Lodge, No. 174, International Association of Machinists, representing 2,000 machinists employed in the local navy yard, and Washington Naval Gun trade relations between the United States | Factory, have formulated a strong campaign, which has for its object the enactment of a bill introduced in the House by nonds. Now, if you had increased the Representative Pearre, for a general advance in the wages of all skilled mechanles at the navy yard.

The legislative committee, which has been in charge of the work of advequisite of your products-the American cating the passage of this bill, say it is their intention to leave nothing undone. This committee is composed of the young men of the highest intelligence, imbued with enthusiasm and possessed of more or less experience in the work

William H. Johnston, president of District Lodge, No. 44, International Association of Machinists, said last night that while the large majority of the skilled mechanics employed in the Washington Navy Yard are the best machinists in the country, they receive less compensation than men of far less ability and experience employed by private concerns.

Requires Highest Skill.

"It takes a man of the highest skill as "to do the high-class work required in the navy yard and in the gun factory.

"The rapid increase in prices of neces sities has forced the laboring men to take "What would you think," he asked, "of some steps to obtain an increase in their compensation to meet the extortionate and obnormal prices charged for food us now with prices at top-notch figures. "The wage scale board, composed of naval officers, who fix annually the salathe South, which were like a breath of sisters woefully, and it is time we were ries, based upon wages paid other skilled mechanics of a like character, base their estimates on the prices paid in Balt'more Richmond, and Alexandria, where high

"I can show you in a number of in

"It may seem strange that the bill for retary to the President; Hon. John E. Reyburn, flactory, where the guns of the navy from the smallest arm to the largest 14-inch lock, Col. William Andrews, Hon. J. J. Sullivan, Wendell Mischler, Assistant Secretary to the suns are completely constructed. This sident: Mr. Edwar C. Sayder Mr. work requires past masters in the ma-

HOW TO USE A DICTIONARY.

is departure for New York this mornng to become editor of the encyclopedia edition of the Standard Dictionary, gave Officers of the Pennsylvania Club were a lecture on "The English dictionary and elected yesterday at the clubhouse, 1328 I how to use it" last night in the assembly hall of the Y. M. C. A., where he said good-by to his former friends and students.

nald said: "A complete dictionary is an epiton of all knowledge. All that is known among men must be expressed in lan-

"Hence, to define accurately all the words of a language is to state in brief all that is known to the people who speak that language. The making of the Standard Dictionary involved the labor of 250 editors, he stated, in speaking of the recent edition.

carload of Huntington

This is a thoroughly reliable piano for home use. Its standing in the musical world is shown by the fact that leading representative music dealers in all cities sell it-dealers who are much too careful of their reputations to handle any but the most dependable makes-so we are by no means alone in voicing its praise. The new models we have secured are very handsome; the cases are excellently designed and of the highest order of workmanship. The tone, action, and touch are all equally good.

Pianos

One price only, $300

Accommodating terms of payment if desired.

Droop's Music House, ____ G and 13th_____

THEATER, OPERA OR SOCIETY FUNCTIONS

wherever people of taste and refinement gather-there

Baker Electrics predominate. Their perfect reliability, no less than their superb lines and finish, have made them the acknowledged Standard

They go farthest and fastest on a single battery charge. They are the most silent of all electrics—the easiest to drive—the most economical to maintain.

Complete catalogue will be sent to your address on request. THE COOK & STODDARD CO.

See our exhibit at the Auto Show this week.

Phone North 3790. 22d and P Sts. N. W.

ASSMANNSHAEUSER.

Astringent Red Rhine Wine.

for generations popular in Germany as a medicinal Wine. Highest Quality. $17.00 doz.; $1.50 bot. Christian Xander's Family Quality House, 909 7th St. No branch houses.

NEW YORKERS AT BANQUET.

Meet William A. Prendergast, Newlyelected Comptroller of Gotham.

United States Senator; Hon. George T. Oliver, United States Senator; Hon. William H. Heald, Hon. H. H. Bingham, Hon. W. W. Foulkrod, Hon. Joel Cook, Hon. Irving P. Wanger, Hon. J. Hampton Moore, Hon. Reuben O. Moon, Hon. Thomas S. Butler, Hon. D. McCreary, Hon. Heary C. country. This can be explained for the Representative William W. Calder was rectors of the Association of Washington, D. C., is hereby called, to be held at the bill for an increase only applies to the Washington inght to meet the newly elected composite of the Association, No. 617 F street northwest, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, at Columbia, at Columbia, and Mrs. Prendergast.

A. Prendergast, and Mrs. Prendergast. Representative William W. Calder was rectors of the Association of Washington, D. C., is hereby called, to be held at the bill for an increase only applies to the Washington, D. C., is hereby called, to be held at the lower of the Association, No. 617 F street northwest, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, at Columbia, at Columbia, and Columbia, and Columbia Ransdell, Hon. Ed- reason that the Washington yard is the the host. The banquet was held at the for the transaction of such other business of the Richardson: only one in the country having a gun New Willard. Covers were laid for special meeting thereof.

E. Reyburn, factory, where the guns of the navy from twenty-six. Those present, besides the jails-30t Mrs. Charles B. Law. Representative and Mrs. Herbert Parsons, Representative and office of the company, Nos. 413-417 10th st. nw., Mrs. William S. Bennet, Representative MONDAY, February 7, 1910, at 12 o'clock noon. Mrs. Charles B. Law. Representative and and Mrs. De Alva S. Alexander, Repreentative and Mrs. Richard Young, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Luckenbach, the forme lieutenant governor of New York, Time thy L. Woodruff, and Mrs. Woodruff Representatives William W. Cocks and Otto G. Foelker, Naval Officer F. J. H. Kracke, and Edmund Voorheis, newly apointed postmaster of Brooklyn.

THOUGHT HE KILLED NEGRO.

Discharges Gun and Escapes.

Dominick Contrissi, thirty-four years old, a son of sunny Italy, is a nervou man which explains why he thought he had committed murder yesterday morning when he had only slighted injured a man Contrissi is a disciple of Caruso, and claims to be a man of temperament Contrissi recently obtained a position with the Pennsylvania Railroad to walk racks. He was provided with a revolver He showed it to "da boys" yesterday norning when he walked into the round house, near Ivy City. He removed five shells, and accidentally left the sixth in the chamber. Then he closed the weapon and began snapping the trigger. A report, flash, and cry from Edward Clinton, negro laborer, was almost simultaneous. Contrissi turned from the deep bronze to a sickly white, as the negro fell with a wound in the right

They carried Clinton to the Casualty Hospital. When they looked for Contriss he was gone. Detectives Cornwell and Baur boarded a car and started in pursuit. Contrissi lost no time. He borrowed $110 from friends, shaved off his beard, and was bound for parts unknown when caught.

At police headquarters he was talkative He was told the negro was not seriously injured, and had left the hospital, and returned to work. Contrissi nearly fainted from the reaction. Then he wanted to buy cigars for everybody. He was removed to the First precinct station The police will release the man this

WOLVERINES AT BANQUET.

Michigan Association Celebrates the State's Anniversary,

The Michigan State Association held its annual banquet last night at Rauscher's celebrating the seventysthird anniversary of the admission of the State into the Representative G. J. Diekema was the toastmaster.

Representative Edward L. Hamilton spoke on the State of Michigan, which he said was noted for its beautiful wome and brave men. "Michigan stands for conservative progress, and though she may not be as strenuous as the East or the West, she is, nevertheless, staple." Maj. George A. Armes, U. S. A., told of the part that Michigan played in the civil war. He stated that it was the First Michigan Infantry that, lead the advance into Virginia, and that the memthe civil war, adding that they were even cool in their flying retreat from Bull Run, and assured his he became confused as to 1 get shot in the face.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE CAPITAL STOCK OF THE LINCOLN Hall Association is one hundred and fifty thousand ollars ($150,600) and fully paid. The indebtedness f the association is $50,000, secured by deed of

J. S. SWORMSTEDT,

District of Columbia, ss:

J. S. SWORMSTEDT, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the president of the Lincoln Hall Association and that the statement foregoing J. S. SWORMSTEDT. Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 25th lay of January, 1910.
(Seal.) CARRIE CLIFTON KOENIG,

Prominent New York men in public life CONFORMABLY TO DUE WRITTEN REQUEST gathered about the banquet table last in that behalf, a special meeting of the stock-holders of the Provident Relief Association of Washington, D. C., is hereby called, to be held at the office of the Association, No. 617 F street northwest, host. Mrs. Calder, and the guests of OFFICE OF THE WASHINGTON GASLIGHT honor, were Representative and Mrs. John J. Fitzgerald, Representative and Mrs.

George W. Fairchild, Representative and Mrs. Charles B. Law. Representative and
Mrs. Charles B. Law. Representative and
Mrs. Charles B. Law. Representative and

Make a Specialty of Legal Printing.

Lawyers will find it to their best interest to have

Motions printed promptly, neatly, and accurately, Judd & Detweiler, Inc., THE BIG PRINT SHOP, 429-22 11TH ST.

> Ralph W. Lee, Commercial Bank Building,

700-716 14th Street N. W. 'Phone Main 2049.

INSURANCE In All Its Branches, Particularly Fire.

"We Want YOUR Business." "I NEVER DISAPPOINT." There's a Difference

In Printing, as there is in carpets, dry goods, or shoes. We can't give you the "silk" grade at the "calico" price, but if you want the "calico" grade we can furnish you the best that a "calico" wide we'll but price will buy.

BYRON S. ADAMS, PRINTER,
Main 300, 512 lith st. Wedding Invitations ENGRAVING FOR SOCIAL FUNCTIONS W. F. ROBERTS CO., Inc.

1413 New York Avenue.

DIED. TAYLOR—Entered into her rest Wednesday, January 26, 1910, at 7:30 a. m., MARJORY McINTOSH TAYLOR, aged eighty-six years, widow of Dr. Thomas Taylor, and mother of A. Robena Taylor.

Robena Taylor.

Funeral services at the residence, 238

Massachusetts avenue northeast at 2:30 p. m., Friday, January 28.

IN MEMORIAM.

HAMMOND—In loving memory of our dear sister, MARY RHODA, daughter of William and Mary Ann Hammond, who died at Paignton, Devonshire, England, one year ago to-day, January 27.

True love lives are lives beyond the grave: True love lives, aye, lives beyond the grave; Though death all other earthly ties may sever It cannot sink beneath that awful wave—

BY HER SORROWING SISTERS.

FUNERAL DESIGNS. FUNERAL FLOWERS

GEO. C. SHAFFER Beautiful floral designs very reasonable in price.

'Phone 2416 Main. 14th & Eye sts. nw.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS.

WILLIAM LEE, Funeral Director bers of the regiment displayed coolness and judgment in all battles throughout 32 Pennsylvania ave. nw. Telephone Main 1385. GEORGE P. ZURHORST, Largest Morning Circulation.